Why Visit

The Arizona Renaissance Festival should top the itineraries for individuals, families, school trips, and group travel planners; it embodies the best of hands on interactive entertainment on and off the stage. It's a medieval amusement park, a 13-stage theater, a 30-acre circus, an arts and crafts fair, a jousting tournament and a feast -- all rolled into one non-stop, day-long adventure! To get started on your time travel adventure, buy your discounted tickets online at RenFestInfo.com or at FRYs Food Stores throughout the state!

What's New This Season?

New this season: Cirque du Sewer; see the antics of acrobatic rat and cat defy instinct as they jump through hoops of fire, execute challenging obstacle courses hundreds of feet in the air for a truly unique finale. Also new Artisan shops, Monks Park, an all new Feast menu and MORE. Of course you can still rub shoulders with all of your returning favorites: Zilch the Tory Steller, Ded Bob, Tortuga Twins, Nunnies and many more.

What are some tips for spending a day at the Festival?

You should plan to get to the festival early, wear comfortable shoes & sunscreen, and plan to stay for the full day! With 30 acres and 13 stages to explore, and more than 2,000 costumed characters to interact with, you never have the same experience twice! Food vendors and games require cash, easily accessible by any of the 8 ATM locations located around the Festival grounds. Remember to yell out HUZDAH (King's English for "Hurray!") while enjoying all the festival has to offer!

Are there any free activities?

There are many free activities for you and your family to enjoy:

What about Special Events on the Weekends?

Each weekend features its own special theme, and attendees are encouraged to dress up to match any of themes and enjoy the added atmosphere. A sample of Special Events and themes can be found on the reverse side of this sheet, and are subject to change. For more details, visit RENFESTINFO.com, "Special Events". For a fee, costumes can be rented just outside the Festival gates! Come early and dress up; the Faire is a whole NEW experience when you are in garb!
